Dedication

This work is dedicated to the memory of a Revolutionary soldier ancestor of mine, John Davis. It seems fitting that this treatise on Revolutionary data should be a memorial to my great-great-great grandfather. He was one of fourteen men by the name of John Davis who fought from Virginia. His pension claim is number S.2155. He was born Aug. 19, 1757 or 58; place and parents not stated. Resident of Prince William County, Va., when he enlisted in Spring of 1775; served 3 months as private in Capt. Heath's Co., Col. Levin Powell's Va. Regiment. Immediately re-enlisted as private in same co. and regt.; wagoner under wagon-master, Jno. Morris; entire service 15 months. While on visit to relatives in Roane county, N.C.--they are unknown to me--enlisted sometime in March, 1780, in Capt. Lowman's Co., Col. Lytle's N.C. Regt. Taken prisoner at Charleston, S.C., held 8 days, released on parole; in short time he enlisted and served one month in Capt. Hedrick's Co. to guard the inhabitants against the Tories. Allowed pension executed Aug. 10, 1832, while living in Perry Township, Pickaway Co., Ohio. Moved to Buchanan Co., Mo., in fall of 1843, and died last day of May, 1844. Jno. Devorss was admr. No record of ux or children in data.

My research shows that he removed to Mo. with his daughter, Mary Davis Devorss, ux of John Perrin's Bourbon, Scott, etc. of Ky., page 538, shows that he was a Virginian and had 8 daughters and two sons, but I only know names of Mary and my great-great grandfather, James Davis. I suspect that John Davis married a Henson, but can't prove it. Mary Devorss named her first son, Henson Devorss, and James Davis named my great-grandfather, Abram Henson Davis.

John's grave was first one marked by DAR of St. Joseph and I learned of it a month after the event. James came to Bourbon and his ux was Margaret Moore. There is a Fulton connection which eludes me in her line. James was in War of 1812.

His son was Abram Henson Davis who married Cath. Laughlin. I know nothing of the Laughlin family back of her father, John, who married Patsy Luckey in Bourbon.

Thos. Isaac Davis was the son of Abram and Thos. married Pauline Campbell. John Fulton Davis was their son and was my father. My parents were John F. and Lucy Ann Bailey.

Other works by compiler include: Abstracts of deed books A, B, C, D, E, and F of Amherst County, Va., with indexes for grantors and grantees. Also abstracts of all A and B families in wills from 1761 to 1919 with indexes.

Impressed Property Claims for services
 Furnished Continental Troops by Amherst
 County, Virginia, Citizens. 1260402

Some years ago the late Mrs. Leonora Higginbotham Sweeny published her interesting and valuable volume on Amherst County. She also gave some excerpts from what she called "The Lost Order Book". This book of orders covers the period from 1773 to 1782. Pages 472 to 500 contain court records showing various claims presented by citizens who had furnished services to Continental troops. Mrs. Sweeny gave a complete list of those names and a few samples of the data. However, she stated that the cost of publishing them was "prohibitive." She also gave a few of the names found in the next order book for 1782-84. After I had checked my material against her list of names found in the Lost Book, as she termed it, I then began a check to see that I had every name listed by her in the 1782-84 order book. It was then that I realized that she had given only a partial list from that book.

Herein I have arranged the material alphabetically as it pertains to both books. If the dates-1782-4 show by a name this will signify that the data is in the second order book. If no date appears, this shows that the data is found in the Lost Book between pages 472 and 500. These lists are very difficult to search for names are not given in order and sometimes two or more claims will be shown on different pages. I have not tried to put down "Per certificate" with each item, but this always comes just before the date given. I also eliminated the use of "Provision" Law as shown when food stuff was furnished. The first number refers to the page in the book whereon the item is found. No attempt has been made to correct spelling of words and names such as flower for flour and Shanandoah for Shenandoah. Some names appear in both of the books.

I am also including a few interesting items on taxpayers, guardians, etc. for the 1782-84 book. I have not put in any data relative to bastardy items or a few other things which might cast reflection upon some descendant. I have these as a matter of private interest to assist me in tracing families, but I see no justification for airing these things in public.

made to correct spelling. We know that this should be Gen.
GREENE, but in every case the spelling is Green and we are leaving it that way. One can picture the farmer aroused from slumber late at night; or just at dusk from his chores.
The sound of many horses hooves can be heard coming toward his home. Soon they come into sight and the farmer hustles to find hay and oats for the steeds and "dietts" for the soldiers. These claims are replete with references to the Augusta militia as they made their homeward trips or as they went south to join Greene's forces.

Note: This man owned land in what is now the Village of Amherst from a point across from the cemetery in the north end of Amherst to what used to be known as Megginson Road at what is now the shopping center. This land was on the east side of present Main Street or US 29. The county seat had to be relocated when Nelson was formed and a site was agreed upon which was located where the present courthouse stands. Geo.Coleman died in 1788 testate. His heirs conveyed two acres for a nominal sum to the justices of Amherst County

Note: Seemingly too old to have been a soldier, but his son, William, shows in next item. For comments on Geo. one is cited to my deed book abstracts. This man is an ancestor of my wife (Nee Mildred Miller). I assume that such service entitles her to a bar, but I have never bothered to file for it. She has three ancestors who show in this data on claims: Geo. Galaspie, Wm. Galaspie and Joshua Hudson, father-in-law of Wm. Galaspie. Wm. also shows on list of those who were soldiers, but I have never filed supplemental data on them for her. She joined the DAR on Wm. Taylor and I later filed supplemental data on Wm. Harris and this was approved.

Note:I decided to look into the next few order books to see if any claims were therein. I found five indexed in the Order book for 1784-87 and I have included them.The next book,1786-89,seems to overlap this one,but it is not indexed so I shall have to make page by page study of it later.It is unfortunate that so many of our early orders are not indexed,but I have been so busy with wills and deeds that I have been unable to pore over them as much as I would like to do the task.

TREATS this family. Jas.Manees is shown in Virginia Baptist data as having attended a very early meeting in Orange,about 1773,to organize a general assosiation and he and one other Amherst man reported a membership of a bit over 20.Burnett shows that he married Elenor Whitsitt who was daughter of Wm.Whitsitt of Amherst.Whitsitt conveyed land to Manees for a nominal sum in what is now the Sweet Briar neighborhood.

Is this the same Huffman who later married here and per-

 Albemarle Barracks and Powell found him and took him in custody ? I know that the Hager family of Kentucky was of Hessian stock and data here shows them in marriages and deeds.

This man has been mentioned in my deed abstracts as the ancestor of Wm. Whitsitt who was President of my theological alma mater, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky. He was an eminent scholar and was hounded from his position by men who could not and would not accept his authenticated historical finds on early Baptist history in England. The family went to Tennessee from here and several became Baptist ministers. I have previously mentioned Burnett's fine work on Pioneer Baptist Preachers in Tennessee and several of the men named Whitsitt are treated therein.

Interestin Sidelights on Amherst Personalities as Found in Order Book for 1782-84. No attempt has been made to include any bastardy data despite the unfortunate fact that these books of orders have many such items. I have also refrained from including various tidbits showing scandalous conduct on the part of any person.

There are items showing that a tax is no longer required on certain slaves. This usually means that the slave has reached an age when she or he is no longer considered profitable to the owner. The first item shown is the page of the book. These are arranged in order so that no index is required.

- 112 Rich. Allcock--May court, 1783--exempt from payment of tax on slave, Judah.
- 21 Wm. Boling Asbury--Sept. court 1783: Wm. Garrison, guardian. Orphan of Jno. Asbury, dec'd.
- 2 Jos. Ballinger--August court 1782: Received of Rev. Benj. Coleman and Elders of the Baptist Church--The Rev. Mr. Jos. Ballinger is permitted to celebrate the rites of matrimony agreeable to Acts of Assembly declaring what shall be a lawful marriage, to which Act Ballinger is referred whereupon he took the oath of allegiance to the State.
- 2 Robt. Barnett- Aug. court 1782--Alex. Reid, Minor, guardian to Robt. Barnett, orphan of Joseph Barnett. Guardian acct. These accounts are usually found in will books and only reference is made to them in orders. Page 13, Aug. court, 1783, gives another reference to same parties.
- 137 Jenny Bibey--July court, 1783--Church Wardens to bind out Jenny Bibey, daughter of Molly Bibey.
- 3 Rhoda Bones -Aug. court, 1782--Church Wardens to bind out Rhoda as she is a charge to the Parish.
- 346 Chas. Anderson Brady--July court 1784--exempt from paying tax.
- 406 James Brady--Oct. court, 1784--exempt from paying tax: personal and county taxes.
- 21 Stark Brown -Sept. court, 1783; orphan of Wm. Brown; Jas. Gatewood, guardian.
- 13 Ann Rooking Bryant--Aug. court 1783; Jas. Watson, gdn.
- 13 Wm. Bryant--same data as above. Also on page 351, Aug. 1784, an acct. reference by gdn.
- 5 Miles Burford -Aug. court 1783: exempt from tax.

- 220 Jos.Cabell--May court 1784: Jas.Hopkins,Jr.,sometime in Feb.lost land warrant No.14945 for 3405 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres with Dec.13 date.Certified to Land Office.
- 209 Nichl.Cabell-Mch.court,1784:exempt from paying tax on slave,Lucy.
- 209 Wm.Cabell-Mch.court,1784-exempt from paying tax
on slaves,Venus and Bess.
- 21 Jno.Campbell--Sept.1782--Thos.Pannell,gdn.;Orphan
of Geo.Campbell.Also reference on p.50:Oct.1782.
- 209 Howard Cash--Mch.1784-Chose Rich.Oglesby as gdn.
Bdm.:Rich.Ballinger.Orphan of Joell Cash,dec'd.
- 50 Wm.Brown Christian--Oct.1782: Henry Christian,gdn.
- 109 Lucy Childresss-May 1783:exempt from tax on slave, Rachel.
- 137 Bernard Coker--July 1783: Church wardens to bind out;child of Ann Coker.This has a confusing angle for Jno.and Jenny Wright are also to be bound out and I am not sure as to parentage of these two.It appears as if they,too,are Ann's progeny.
- 137 Suckey Coker--July 1783:Same as above.
- 13 Charlotte, Joatney and Robt.Cooper-Aug.,1783:Lucas Powell ,gdn.
- 3 Charlotte and Robt.Cooper--Aug.1782;GA(acct.) by Lucas Powell,gdn. Orphans of Philip Cooper,dec'd.
Note:Another Cooper named Jane married Benj.
Powell,son of Lucas,and her gdn. wss Wm.Powell.

of Philip.All of these orphans married here so see Sweeny's marriage data.
- 221 Nathan Crawford--May 1784:exempt from tax on slave, Jack.
- 504 Jno.Crawley--Oct.1784--Church Wardens of Lexington

are children of Jno.Crawley.They are "left in great distress".

- 31 Samuel Croxton--Oct.1782-Mordecai Brown,gdn. of

- 272 Jos.Davenport(Devenport) -May 1784-exempt from tax on slave,Flora.

- 235 David Donohoe--May 1784-exempt from tax.
- 283 Chas.Ellis--June 1784-exempt from tax on slave,Bett, because of her age and infirmity.
- 418 Wm.Finnie--Oct.1784--Petition brought by him as an infant by Timothy Finnie,his next friend,vs.Jos. Lane is continued.
- 222 Mary Freeland--May 1784-exempt from tax on slave, Glasgow.
- 237 Wm.Gatewood--May 1784-exempt from tax.
- 348 Rich.Gilbert--Aug.1784--Danl.Gaines,GA,for this orphan of Henry Gilbert.
- 50 Thos.Gilbert--Oct.1782--Danl.Gaines,gdn.
- Back fly leaf of order book,1782-84,has this notation:
Gabriel Grub signed this statement:"Finished wading through this book on Saturday night,Mch.31,1872."
This may explain just why a few of our old orders are missing. The office is closed at night so this man seems to have taken the book to some other place to peruse it. If others did the same thing for some of the old books now missing,this would account for their being gone.I recall that while in Washington County, Kentucky,a missing order book showed up in a window ledge of a state building at Frankfort and my wife indexed it for the County Clerk's office upon its return.
- 140 Keziah Hansbrough--Aug.1783-Alex.Blaine carried a land warrant to Caintuck in her name and lost it-- upwards of 700 acres.Note:This woman left will in Nelson and mentions land in Kentucky.She had a son in Kentucky and reserved his portion until he returned. Page 217 -Ap.1784-she is exempt from tax on Marion,a slave.

- 349 Henry Harper--Aug.1784--Jno.Parks, of lawful age, certifies that in Feb.cf 1783 he was coming from Richmond and lost certificate of Harper's.He believes that it was for L4 for service as militia man from AC under command of Capt.Jno.Loving.He has never heard of it since.Certified to Auditor of Publick Accounts.
- 204 Jno.Harris -Mch.1784-exempt from tax on slave,Tom.
- 455 Rich.Hodges--Oct.1784- exempt from tax because of age and little property.
- 221 Jas.Hopkins--May 1784--Jas.Hopkins,Jr.,swore that sometime last February he lost land warrant of Jas. Hopkins.It was Number 11516 for 125 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres and bore date of 1782.Certified to Land Office.

- 13 Snelling and Phillip Johnson--Aug.1783-Chas.Burras,gdn.
- 217 Stephen Johnson--Ap.1784-exempt from tax on slave,Ruth.
- 109 Wm.Johnson--May 1783-exempt from tax on slave,Suck.
- 171 Geo.and Jas.Jones--Aug.1783--Two different items --Jas. is an infant and charge made of assault etc. vs. Benj.Pannell,Wm.Depriest and Jas.Bell.Geo.brings charge vs.Jas.BellGeo. is not called an infant.

It will be noted that Amherst County was quiet during the first years of the Revolution. This is due to the fact that the first phases of the conflict took place in the northern section of the now United States. One sees the activity which was stirred up by the versatile General Nathaniel Greene as he studies these claims.

One is better able to appreciate the full scope of Amherst's contribution, though, by a study of the excellent material which the late Mrs. Leonor Higginbotham Sweeny assembled in her work, Amherst County in The Revolution, With Excerpts from The Lost Order Book. This tome will stand as the finest contribution to the history of the period.

No attempt has been made to give a relative evaluation of the services rendered by the persons herein shown. I am not an authority on pounds and shillings and make no defense of my arithmetic. I have simply tried to copy the data as I found it. This has been a difficult task in some respects for the script handled leaves much to be desired.

It is just possible that there are many items on Revolutionary soldiers yet to be disclosed in a study of the order books. I found two declarations today in a book, and a check against Mrs. Sweeny's data does not reveal any such names. This brought to mind a conversation with her several years before her death in which she stated that she was satisfied that there were many more to be found. I am going to pursue the study to see just what data is available. If I find that the presentation of such material will be worthwhile, I shall issue it. I should like to hear from interested students of Amherst genealogy to take inventory of the response. No one is thereby obligated to support any such future venture.
